

EPISODE 21 SEASON 2 RAPPER SERIES BY COUNTRIFIED WEDMAN

TITLE: PLOTTING FOR WORLD DOMINATION

361. INT. FBI DIRECTOR'S OFFICE - DAY

The F.B.I. Director is sitting in his office when 8 professional men in suits enter his office.

F.B.I. DIRECTOR

"Hey, gentlemen. I don't remember having you all on my schedule, what is this all about?"

The Sports Spokesman (male, White, slick blond hair, clean shaving, 50-65) starts the conversation.

SPORTS SPOKESMEN

"Sorry, Director. This matter is urgent, and we have no time for appointments. I'm sure you are aware of what's happening to our nation. I'm here to represent the sports sector, if you will. We're losing billions of dollars with this player's strike."

F.B.I. DIRECTOR

"I'm well aware of the situation."

SPORTS SPOKESMEN

"Then you know that you must take action and have those involved in this conspiracy charged and convicted. We also need to meet the demands the players are asking if we ever want to get things back to normal."

F.B.I. DIRECTOR

"We will publicly have those involved convicted and spend jail time for all to see."

The Secretary of Treasury (tall, mixed race, black hair, mustache, with no beard) speaks up.

SECRETARY OF TREASURY

"Not to mention, half of the country has stopped working in protests. As the secretary of treasury, I'm here to tell you that we can't sustain this for too much longer. Not to mention, the stock market has crashed to an all-time low. You must act swiftly to restore the confidence in the American people."

F.B.I. DIRECTOR

"I'm aware of your concerns, and we're taking measures to fix it."

362. INT. WHITE HOUSE PRESS ROOM - DAY

The Press secretary (lady, Asian, 50-60 yrs, shoulder length black hair, and glasses) is standing behind the podium in the press room taking questions. Press Woman (Black, curly shoulder length hair, slightly overweight, with glasses) asks a question.

PRESS WOMAN

"What is this administration doing to ensure justice is served in the collusion scandal against Black and Brown people?"

PRESS SECRETARY

"The President is well aware of the anger the country is feeling because of this. He is scheduled to meet with lawmakers on how to prevent this from happening again, and he will be signing executive orders to help with this matter."

The Press Secretary points to a man in the third row. Press Man 1 (White, thin body, black slick hair, and glasses) asks his question.

PRESS MAN 1

"What is the President doing about the religious backlash happening across the country? People are feeling like religion has been a control mechanism."

PRESS SECRETARY

"This country has a separation of church and state. We don't get into what others believe. Next question."

Press Man 2 is a biracial man (40-50, well dressed, black hair, no facial hair, professional look).

PRESS MAN 2

"What involvement is this administration in the global financial crisis, and what measures are being taken to get the American people back to work?"

PRESS SECRETARY

"The President is in talks with global leaders on how to come together and give the market stability. We also feel we need to address the concerns of the American people so they can stop protesting and get back to work... Thank you. That's all for now. We have a very busy day."

The Press Secretary walks off while the press continues to shout questions at her.

363. INT. SAFE HOUSE - DAY

Powerful Man 1 walks into the safe house. The men are having breakfast. Security guards stand by as he enters the place.

POWERFUL MAN 1

"Gentlemen, I'm afraid time is running out. The pressure for arrests has gotten to a level out of my control. The people want to see people involved do jail time."

OFFICER LAWSON

"So, what does that mean for us?"

POWERFUL MAN 1

"That means you and Officer Taylor are going to have to take the purp walk. The public wants to see someone go to jail and we can't risk the image of the Governor or the Judge doing it."

GOVERNOR STALLWORTH

"What does that mean for the judge and me? Will we be doing jail time?"

POWERFUL MAN 1

"I can't be certain at this point. As of now, we need to keep you here until I can figure it out."

Officer Lawson stands up and walks over to Powerful Man 1.

OFFICER LAWSON

"How much jail time?"

POWERFUL MAN 1

"I don't know, maybe 5 yrs, 2 years with good behavior. It will be a piece of cake. We will make sure you're at the nicest federal prison in Georgia."

OFFICER LAWSON

"Before I do any prison time, I have one request."

POWERFUL MAN 1

"What's that?"

OFFICER LAWSON

"I need to give that piece of shit Jones a piece of my mind before we kill 'em. Can we go get him right now?"

POWERFUL MAN 1

"You can't be out in public, but I think I can arrange something that will bring him to us. Plus, one of my bosses wanted to have a word with him also... You guys enjoy the rest of your breakfast, and I'll be in touch."

Powerful Man 1 walks out of the room.

364. WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM BRIEFING - DAY

The situation room has some very important people entering. We see generals from the armed forces entering the room. President Hunter (White, 60-75, black hair, clean shaving, and professional looking) is walking towards the situation room with a team of advisors and cabinet members behind him. Powerful Man 3 (tall, muscular body type, 65-70, very serious look, gray hair, and clean-shaven) stops the President from entering the room.

POWERFUL MAN 3

"Sorry, Mr. President. You're not allowed to attend this briefing."

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"So, it is true. Are you really telling the President of the United States that I can't attend a briefing held at the White House? Especially, when I have to answer for what's going on with this shit show of a conspiracy."

POWERFUL MAN 3

"Sorry Sir, but this meeting is on a need-to-know basis and you're not on the list."

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"This meeting is in regards to the conspiracy, so, how am I not a person that needs to know? You know what, I'm the President God damn it, and I'm attending this briefing."

POWERFUL MAN 3

"Yes, you are the President and if you want to stay the President, I suggest you know your place very quickly. We don't answer to you or any sitting President. Now, if you would excuse me, we have a U.A.S.A. project to discuss."

Powerful Man 3 shuts the door, and the President is stunned.

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"Ok, what the fuck just happened? What is a U.A.S.A. project, and why can't I know about it?"

Cabinet Member 1 (male, thin body type, glasses, full head of gray hair, scratchy gray and black beard, 50-62) explains to the President.

CABINET MEMBER 1

"Mr. President, can I speak with you in private?"

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"Sure. Everyone give us a minute."

The rest of the staff leave the hallway leaving the two men alone.

PRESIDENT HUNTER (CON'T)

"Can you tell me what the hell is going on?"

CABINET MEMBER 1

(Inside voice)

"Sir, U.A.S.A. stands for Un-Acknowledged Special Access. The project that they're discussing is off-record. It's like they're a secret government inside of the government, if you will."

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"So, all of the rhetoric about aliens being at the top of this conspiracy is true?"

CABINET MEMBER 1

"Without being in the room, I can't confirm any of this, but I will say whenever they discuss projects like this, it's something very secretive."

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"I see."

Cabinet Member 1 walks off leaving the President there to ponder what was just said.

365. EXT. JONES'S CAR- DAY

Detective Jones is riding in his car when the phone rings. He answers.

DETECTIVE JONES

"Jones speaking."

CALLER V.O.

"I know where the people who kidnapped your wife are located right now."

DETECTIVE JONES

"What? Who is this?"

CALLER V.O.

"That doesn't matter. Do you want the information on their location or not?"

DETECTIVE JONES

"Yes. Where are they?"

CALLER V.O.

"Check your phone. I just sent you the address."

The caller hangs up.

DETECTIVE JONES

"Hello! Hello!"

Jones realizes the caller is gone. He sees the address on his phone. He makes a call.

DETECTIVE JONES (CON'T)

"Hammer, I need you and Selinsky to get the boys together for war. Yea, I know where the son of bitches that kidnapped my wife is at. Yeah... Can you get everyone together and meet me at the station in 45 minutes? Ok. Thanks."

375A. WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM BRIEFING - DAY (CON'T)

There are a group of powerful men and women in the room. Powerful Man 3 is standing before everyone speaking.

POWERFUL MAN 3

Our reptilian controllers are not too happy about the program being exposed and disrupted. We must continue to keep the vibrations of the humans at a consumable level. If we don't continue our obligations to them, they will expose themselves and come up. This will expose the galactic war waged for thousands of years before the human people. We must avoid this at all costs."

The General Lady (White, brown shoulder length hair, 5'6" - 5'8", average size, 50-55, very professional look, fully decorated uniform) asks a question.

GENERAL LADY

"The planet is moving to a more conscious state, if you will. What is the plan to stop citizens from tapping into their higher selves and making it more difficult for the reptilians to survive?"

POWERFUL MAN 3

"We know that as everyday passes, time is running out for the reptilians to rain over the surface people. We can buy more time if we can cause a major distraction. Planning and preparation is taking place as we speak to enact this."

366. INT. INFORMANTS OFFICE - DAY

Spitta and Derick walk into the informant's office.

RALOSZO

"Gentlemen have a seat."

The two men sit in the chairs in front of Raloszo's desk. Russo is standing to the side of Raloszo holding a folder.

SPITTA

"So, what you got?"

RALOSZO

"We identified the man who set you up, and we think we know why, but I don't think you're going to like who it is."

Russo throws the folder on the desk.

367. EXT. / INT. SAFE HOUSE - DAY

Detective Jones, Hammer, Selinsky, and 8 other heavily armed men approach the safe house. Hammer shoots the doorknob and kicks the door open. The men come inside blasting. The security personnel return fire. A major firefight goes down. Selinsky is shot and killed. Jones crew kills 3 of their men. Two more officers from Jones's team get hit. Jones hides behind a wall and is searching for more people in the house.

DETECTIVE JONES

(To his team)

"Keep the pressure on them. I'll make sure there are no other threats here."

Detective Jones kicks in a door and once he enters. A gun is pointed at his head by one of the men in black. He raises his hands. Powerful Man 1 is in the room.

POWERFUL MAN 1

"Mr. Jones. We were expecting you. Drop your weapon if you ever want to see tomorrow."

Jones drops his gun. The man in black has Jones's hands behind his back and a gun pointed to his head. He walks Jones out into the open where the gunfight is happening. Powerful Man

1 speaks to all of the shooters.

POWERFUL MAN 1

"The show is over gentlemen. Either drop your weapons or you're looking at a dead man."

DETECTIVE JONES

"Everyone, drop your weapons!"

Jones's men drop their weapons, and the security guys lead the men into another room leaving Jones with the men. The men tie Jones to a chair. Officer Lawson, Judge Radford, and Officer Taylor all come out of the room. Jones knows he was set up when he sees these men.

DETECTIVE JONES

"So, it was you mother-fuckers behind all of this."

OFFICER LAWSON

"What did you think? You think you can ruin our lives and there will be no consequences?"

DETECTIVE JONES

"You ruined your own lives. You all participated in a conspiracy and a cover-up, not me."

OFFICER LAWSON

"See, that's your problem. You think you know everything. This shit is way bigger than any of us. Now, I have tried to protect you for many years, but you wouldn't listen or take the hints. So, you're going to get yourself assassinated just like your father did."

DETECTIVE JONES

"Wait! My father was assassinated!? I thought my father was killed in the line of duty."

OFFICER LAWSON

"That was the story we manufactured for the public. Your father and I were very close. We went through the academy together. When he had ordered to participate in a special project, I was proud of him. But he fell in love with that C.I.A. lady, and he changed. He wanted to spill top-secret information. He wrote those books and began promoting them, and I told him many times that that was a bad idea. He wouldn't listen just like you didn't, and an order was put out for him to be killed. Since we were friends, I felt obligated to look out for his only son."

DETECTIVE JONES

"So, that's why you showed me favor over the years, and I was able to make detective over Winslow."

OFFICER LAWSON

"I had you promoted to the head detective to hopefully get you away from all of this shit. I told you to stay out of it, but you wouldn't listen, and now, I'm paying the price for it."

DETECTIVE JONES

"Do you know who killed my father?"

Governor Stallworth comes out of the room.

GOVERNOR STALLWORTH

"I killed your father."

DETECTIVE JONES

"Governor!"

GOVERNOR STALLWORTH

"That's right, and trust me, I have had to do some nasty things in order to be the Governor. I was the police chief at the time I killed your father. I was asked to do it by a high-ranking member of the C.I.A.. In return, they ensured that I would become mayor. You don't want to know the things I had to do to become Governor."

This makes Jones upset.

DETECTIVE JONES

"You sick motherfucker! You killed my father!"

Powerful Man 1 steps into the conversation.

POWERFUL MAN 1

"You have read your father's book, so you are well aware that this planet is controlled by vessels way more advanced than humans. These men had no choice but to carry out the orders given to them. You should consider yourself privileged that one of my bosses even wants to speak with you."

Reptilian Elite 1 (tall White man, pointed nose and chin, black hair slicked to the left, no facial hair, and dressed in a black suit) appears out of nowhere. He then changes into a reptilian lizard. He is fully green with no clothing. This freaks out all the others in the room. They hold their composure.

REPTILIAN ELITE 1

"What you must overstand is that we control the surface of this planet. We've been here for thousands of years, and it benefits our race to control humans without their knowledge. What you have done is made the world more aware of our existence. This upsets the natural order of things and that's why your father was killed, and you must be dealt with."

DETECTIVE JONES

"You don't scare me, you lizard motherfucker. So, what? You can operate on a higher vibration that humans can't see, appear when you want, and become whatever you want. You're not the only vessel that can do that. You've been at war with the protectors of human evolution for thousands of years. The mission I'm on is directed by the Gods. Our Anunnaki Gods will protect us from you. You know your time is running short on controlling the surface and you must go or be destroyed."

REPTILIAN ELITE 1

"We will stop you and your team from continuing to elevate the people, and we will regain control of their minds once again. You will not stop our food source by raising their vibration."

(To the other men)

"Destroy him."

The Reptilian Elite 1 vanishes.

OFFICER TAYLOR

"Wow, that was some real trippy shit."

GOVERNOR STALLWORTH

"That's why we have no choice but to follow orders."

OFFICER TAYLOR

"Well, you heard whatever that was. Let's destroy this piece of shit."

Officer Taylor grabs his gun and shoots Detective Jones. Jones flies back in the chair. The F.B.I. rushes through the door with guns pointed. The men all raise their hands. Director Daniels walks in.

DIRECTOR DANIELS

"I'm Director Daniels. I'm the attorney general of the United States. It looks like you guys have some explaining to do and some jail time to serve."

(To a F.B.I. agent)

"Untie this man and get him some help, right away!"

The men grab Jones, untie him from the chair, and get him medical attention. Jones was shot in the shoulder, so he should make it. The agents free Jones's men and take the other security guys into custody.

DIRECTOR DANIELS (CON'T)

(To another agent)

"Handcuff these guys."

The agents handcuff the four men. Powerful Man 1 is untouched.

POWERFUL MAN 1

"What do you think you're doing?"

DIRECTOR DANIELS

"My job."

(To the agents)

"Now get them out of here."

The agents lead the men out of the safe house.

382. INT. WHITE HOUSE - DAY

The President is behind the podium speaking to the American people. There are camera people, reporters, and important people in attendance.

PRESIDENT HUNTER

"I come before the American people to say, today is the first day of real change and healing. We need to restore confidence in the American government, and the first thing to do is to convict the bad apples that would plot against American citizens for profit. Today, many of those people will be spending some time in Federal prison. But sending these bad actors to prison is not enough. I want to make sure that this doesn't happen again. So, I have just signed executive order 35647 to provide government funding for a Correctional Task Force. They will oversee state departments that have complaints of wrongdoing. I will meet with state lawmakers this evening to develop funding to have a task force monitor all police activities and will give the public access to them anytime they feel a cop is violating their constitutional rights. We will pressure state lawmakers to abolish privately owned prisons. Those who refuse will be named for the public to remember during the next election. I've also signed Executive Order 32344 stating no minority can be sentenced to more time than their White counterparts given similar criminal backgrounds. State lawmakers will also be pressured to take similar measures. That's it for now, and I want to thank everyone for tuning in and coming out. I will update the American people on this if necessary."

383. INT. NEIGHBORHOOD BARBER SHOP

The barbershop has the news on and everyone inside is watching.

BARBER 1

"These motherfuckers think we're stupid. They think just because they locked up a few crackers that we believe that America has changed. They just want things to go back to normal, so we can forget about it, and they can start fucking with us again."

BARBER 2

"Facts my brotha."

The guard opens the cell. Attorney Conley walks in, and the prison guard walks off. The Woman Prisoner gets off of her bed and stands up. Conley puts her things on the top bed and then introduces herself.

ATTORNEY CONLEY

"Hi, I'm Clair."

Attorney Conley extends her hand, but the woman Prisoner doesn't shake it. Conley gets uncomfortable immediately.

WOMAN PRISONER

"Yeah, I know who you are. You're Clair Conley as in Attorney Conley. You're the bitch that ruined so many lives by prosecuting Black and Brown people. Well, you know what bitch? I'm one of those people you wrongfully prosecuted. I have to do another four years in here away from my kids because of your bullshit. I asked God every day to allow me to get my hands on you and look at God."

Woman Prisoner looks up to the ceiling.

WOMAN PRISONER (CON'T)

"Won't he do it?"

ATTORNEY CONLEY

"Look, I'm sorry."

WOMAN PRISONER

"Yeah. I'm sorry too. I'm sorry you're going to have to catch this ass whooping every day you're in here."

REPTILIAN ELITE 2

"So, we must enact World War 3. This is our only option to regain control of the world or full disclosures will be on display, and the world will never be the same as we know it."

REPTILIAN ELITE 1

"Many protests are coordinated through social media platforms. We will cut off communications by shutting down the internet worldwide and phone communications. The electronic banking system will be inoperable so no transactions can take place. It will be considered a cyber-attack. We understand that troops from your perspective countries may not want to wage war against their own people, so you will send your troops to the perspective countries leaving the citizens to defend themselves. Foreign troops will flood your cities with the order to destroy certain buildings and detain citizens. We must strike fear in everyone in order for this to be over. We will then unite the world under one nation with one central level of control. Sovereignty will be no more."

REPTILIAN ELITE 2

"A small number of nuclear weapons can be used but nothing major. With that being said, you have 48 hours to alert your designated people to get to the underground cities. You all have pamphlets before you detailing the war strategies. Please discuss the matter with your military teams. We will protect the media and have them deliver our narrative to the public."

REPTILIAN ELITE 1

"Are there any questions?"

BLACK POPE

"The vibrational shift is upon us. It's all a part of the cycle of life."

We see Chinese people and some Whites walking into an underground city. People are amazed at the city.

397. INT. ETHIOPIA - NIGHT

Many African people are exploring the underground city. Some people are looking at the buildings and some are looking at the garden of vegetables.

398. INT. AMERICAN UNDERGROUND CITY - DAY

Many important people are getting briefed on their temporary new home. Most of the people are White but you have all races there. A small boy (White, spiky blonde hair, and 8 years old) is taking the new city all in. He looks at his dad.

SMALL BOY

"This is so cool."

The dad pats him on his back while the Social Director (woman, White, black and blonde hair pulled into a ponytail, average size, 30-45, and glasses) continues briefing the crowd.

SOCIAL DIRECTOR

"I want to welcome everyone to Tropical Cove. You all are the chosen few that have been selected to rebirth the population if needed. We have several underground cities in the United States, and this happens to be the first and the largest one. We have enough resources to sustain life for over two years if needed. During the first week of your stay, the adults will go through an evaluation process to see what job you will be performing. We will try to make life here as similar to your past life as possible."

399. INT. HOSPITAL RECOVERY ROOM- DAY

The room has a bed, two couches, and a loveseat. Detective Jones is sitting on one of the couches speaking to Andre 3000. Jones is wearing a hospital gown, and his right shoulder is bandaged up.

ANDRE 3000

"You know I wished you would have let me know you was going in. I could have invited a couple of my goons."

DETECTIVE JONES

"Nawl. I didn't want to get you involved in that. We have enough stuff to worry about."

Spitta, Derrick, Swurv, and three other goons walk in. Detective Jones is happy to see him.

DETECTIVE JONES

"Spitta! It's good to see you."

SPITTA

"Wish I could say the same about you."

Spitta pulls out his gun and points it at Jones.

DETECTIVE JONES

"Hey. What are you doing?"

SPITTA

"I know everything. Your old ass set me up motherfucker."

DETECTIVE JONES

"What are you talking about?"

SPITTA

"Don't play dumb with me. I hired some private investigators to see who set me up on that bus that night. Those cops worked for you. You had me arrested so I would have no choice but to sign to his label."

ANDRE 3000

"Now, wait a minute..."

Spitta points the gun at Andre 3000.

SPITTA

"You shut the fuck up! You was in on this too. When this is over, I want to be released from your label."

(To Detective Jones)

"You had me read those books and start rapping all of this knowledge to people knowing I was doing the work you was afraid to. You stopped rapping about that shit and promoting your father's book because people close to you were dying. Then you saw me and used me to carry on your mission. Now my fucking G-Mom is dead!"

Detective Jones realizes his secret has been exposed, and he must come clean to Spitta. Jones and Andre 3000 both get up out of their seats.

DETECTIVE JONES

"Ok. You are right. I did use you. My father had a mission to change this world. It's so many people that are unaware of this world, and he tried to change it. When he died, I wanted nothing more than to see his mission completed. You're right, I was promoting the books and rapping about it, and it became too dangerous to continue. I started working in the police force so I could see the corruption from the inside. I figured maybe I would have a chance to make a difference that way. Then years later my daughter brings the biggest rapper in the country home. Then it hits me. You could be the one to carry the torch and finish the mission. You had the ear of the streets, so I took my shot."

SPITTA

"So, is Shaniya in on this? Did you send her?"

DETECTIVE JONES

"Shaniya wasn't a part of this. She still doesn't know. It was my plan and mines alone. I'm sorry to have betrayed you like this, but this mission is bigger than you and me. Look at the changes you have made across the world. Together, we have set this thing in motion to help billions of people realize the truth and their God-given powers... Look, I'm sorry about your G-Mom, but I told you that it was danger in this mission. Look at me. I'm shot right now, and they had my wife tied up and threatened to kill her, but she didn't budge because this shit is bigger than all of us..."

There is a silence across the room. Spitta is almost in tears. He wants to shoot Jones, but he also overstands what he accomplished through Jones.

DETECTIVE JONES (CON'T)

"You know, honestly, when Shaniya first brought you home, I just thought you were just another lost, non-rapping ass nigga being used by the system.

But as we started working together, I could see the talent and leadership you possess. You became the son that I never had, and I love you Spitta. Now, if you're going to shoot and kill me, I can't stop you, but I'm coming clean to you right now. I fucked up; but I couldn't blow the chance of completing the mission, so I wasn't straight up."

Spitta drops the gun and then points it back at Jones and he drops it again. He is really conflicted on what to do.

SPITTA

"Fuck!"

DETECTIVE JONES

"Everything happens for a reason, and you're the reason this world has elevated their consciousness."

Jones walks toward Spitta.

DETECTIVE JONES (CON'T)

"Give me the gun, son."

Spitta is nearly in tears. He hesitates at first and then gives Detective Jones the gun. Jones hugs Spitta.

DETECTIVE JONES (CON'T)

"It's over, son. We won. The mission is complete. All we have to do now is sit back and watch the show. I love you and promise to be straight up with you about everything moving forward."

Fade to black.
